

1) Who Would You Hire?

Based on your first impression, using the images provided, select the most appropriately dressed candidate for the following listed positions. Once chosen for one position, he or she cannot be hired for another:

1. Sales manager
2. Sales staff
3. Head of human resources
4. Entry level
5. Builder (middle management)

How did you make your decision?

2) Who Would You Hire?

Based on your first impression, using the images provided, select the most appropriately dressed candidate for the following listed positions. Once chosen for one position, he or she cannot be hired for another:

1. CEO of a Fortune 500 company
2. General manager
3. Entry level office assistant
4. Labourer
5. Architect

How did you make your decision?

3) Who Would You Hire?

Based on your first impression, if you had to choose from the following, who would you choose for the following listed positions? Once chosen for one position, he or she cannot be hired for another:

- General manager
- Builder (middle management)
- Labourer
- Interior decorator
- Architect

How did you make your decision?

4) Who Would You Hire?

Based on your first impression, if you had to choose from the following, who would you choose for the following listed positions? Once chosen for one position, he or she cannot be hired for another:

1. Sales Manager
2. Receptionist
3. Retail sales to the public
4. Interior Decorator
5. Business to Business sales

How did you make your decision?

5) Who Would You Hire?

Based on your first impression if you had to choose from the following, whom would you choose for the listed positions? Once chosen for one position he or she cannot be hired for another:

1. Executive assistant
2. Display and merchandising
3. Stock room
4. General manager
5. Server for a hip chain restaurant

How did you make your decision?
